

Historic Resources Inventory

Supplemental

March 2008

The highway project illustrated below shows how digitized and assessable inventory information empowered the Federal Highway Administration, State Department of Transportation, and the City to design the project in a manner that avoids or reduces effects to historic buildings. Credit: Ohio Historic Preservation Office.

